Pledge of Allegiance

Quick Tips

- Make things short and to the point
  - We have a lot of people and information to cover
- No need for side conversations
- Save all comments/questions until the end
  - Take notes so you'll remember
- Be respectful and don't talk while others are presenting
  - They worked hard on these slides and talking is just rude

Accomplished (since last meeting)

- Staff#1-#3 now can all print using printer switch
  - Must select
- LapTop#2 hopefully now fixed
  - Changed out monitor/cable

Working on (estimated completion date)

- Getting Staff#4 fixed (ink)

Assistance needed

- Buy a new set of printer ink
- Buy extra projector bulb
- The printer in the back is for the use of the unit for the unit, not for personal use. Please see to it that all cadets understand that, someone printed a b-day paper(2 of them!) wasting ink and toner.

E Flight Commander

Flight events/projects scheduled

- Gonzales and I are working with the the garden that is in front of the office in the main parking lot. (Haven't told the flight anything yet, planning on telling the flight when all of the issues are completed.)

Kudos

- To the guys for getting a little bit better on shaving.

Why we have so many forms and the purpose of all this

- 341/trends

-you see a pattern of behavior

- Counseling forms

-commanders would counsel this person and fill out form. This is more conversation with feedback

- Letters of counseling

-More serious offense or situation but not as far as LOR, Cadet Evaluation Board

- Cadet evaluation board

-Before LOR, if a trend continues or a serious offense has taken place. Made Of person's squadron commander, Deputy commander and group commander.

- Letter of reprimand

-After a serious offense and CEB has taken place this is when person involved is told what they and why they were in the wrong and where punishment is presented. Also describes process of rebuttal
